

ADVANCED SEMINAR ON SHORT SELLING

NOVEMBER 14-16
(WEBINAR)

This long bull market has inflicted absolute carnage among short sellers, and even seasoned veterans are throwing in the towel. This capitulation, however, combined with the increasing level of overvaluation, complacency, hype and even fraud in our markets, spells opportunity for courageous investors, so there is no better time for a seminar focused solely on short selling.

On Thursday, May 3, Whitney Tilson's Kase Learning hosted a full-day conference in NYC at which 22 of the world's top short sellers taught the hard lessons they'd learned, revealed the questionable companies they'd identified, and shared their best, actionable short ideas.

The tremendous response to the conference has clearly shown that there's great interest in short selling (despite – or perhaps because of – the pain most of us have been suffering!) – both in terms of learning and hearing new ideas.

Thus, Kase Learning has developed a one-day Advanced Seminar on Short Selling that will be taught in 3 webinar modules for the advanced short selling seminar – that we will teach in 2½-hour sessions that will take place live every day from 7:00 - 9:30am Eastern Time/New York

- Unlike the conference, the short-selling seminar will be an intimate group – no more than 20 people – because we encourage (but don't require) each person who participates to present their favorite short idea in 10 minutes or less, plus five minutes for Q&A. In this way, participants can gain experience pitching an investment idea in a clear and concise way, a critical skill to have in this business, as well as hearing other fresh, actionable short ideas.
- In addition, participants will learn from Whitney Tilson and Glenn Tongue as they teach their module on Lessons from 15 Years of Short Selling (which includes case studies of Lumber Liquidators – which worked – and Wingstop – which didn't) as well as a veteran short seller (two speakers from the conference, Sahm Adrangi of Kerrisdale Capital and Mark Hiley from The Analyst, will be the guest speakers in NYC and London, respectively).
- Lastly, we will be looking for especially talented investors to whom we can offer a speaking slot at one of our future short-selling conferences, which we're planning to host twice a year in NYC (the next one is scheduled for Monday, December 3). This is an extraordinary opportunity for anyone looking to make a name for themselves.

WEBINAR BENEFITS

The webinar offers big advantages for participants:

- No need to take time off of work: The webinar is only 2½ hours/day and takes place before work hours for those in the U.S., Canada & Latin America, in the middle of the day in Europe, the Middle East and Africa, and after work hours in Asia (India, China, Singapore, Australia).
- No need to travel: Anyone, anywhere in the world, can take the webinar using a smartphone, tablet or computer.
- More affordable: Participants won't incur any travel or hotels costs and, because we don't have to pay for renting a room, providing meals, etc., we're pricing the webinar at less than half of our normal tuition, with an especially big discount for early registrants.

SCHEDULE

The webinar will be held daily 7:00 - 9:30am Eastern Time/New York:

- Advanced Seminar on Short Selling Wed. - Fri., November 14 - 16
